

Dorchester Heritage Center Research Library Guidelines

Regulations:

Jackets, bags, and personal books are not permitted in the research room. Please leave them with an employee at the front.

No Ink Pens, Food, or Beverages are allowed in the Research Room—Pencils only.

All Books and Items must be handled with care. The Director will determine how many Items may be viewed at a time. Do not place any Books or Items face down. Do not lean on Books or Items. Do not place anything on Books or Items. Do not trace maps or other records.

No Items that you are viewing may leave the research area at any time.

Researchers are advised that it is their responsibility, not the DHC's, to obtain copyright clearance to publish, reproduce, or distribute archival documents. If possible, the DHC will provide information for seeking copyright permission.

If publishing material from Dorchester Heritage Center, please credit the DHC.

Photocopies, unless restricted or protected by copyright, will be supplied for research purposes for $0.25 per page and photos are $5.00 each. However, at times, it may not be possible to print an entire order on the day requested and the DHC reserves the right to carry out the work over a period of time.

Researchers are not allowed to copy archival documents using their own cameras, flash drives, or other equipment.
